HONGKONG: JANUARY 19TH, 1886.

Amongst the Bills introduced into the Legislative Council on the recommendation at Sydney on the 12th inst. of the Law Revision Commission is one " to order, the initials as well as the surnames repeal the usury laws and to fix a legal rate of interest." Within the last few months the construction of a railway to Yunnan as the The MAPS and PLANS have been mostly there have been several cases before the transactions in which the rate of interest and the announcement almost immediately of usury seems to have created an impression that there was some connection between the two, in fact that the Bill was intended to ramedy what is looked upon as an evil. The Bill now before the Council is a very brief one, consisting only of four short sections, and merely consolidates the existing law repealing the old usury laws and fixes a rate of interest for the guidance of the Court in cases where interest is payable on any contract but the rate has been left unfixed. This rate is twelve per cent., but it is provided that it shall be lawful for the court to allow a lower rate if the circumstances of the case render it just and expedient. Southern Mongolia and Thibet. With our railway to Darjeeling and good roads to the neigh-bouring frontier, it only requires commercial organization and freedom from obstruction to insure a flourishing trade between Calcutta and Lhassa." Some steps have been taken to meet the special requirements of the Lhassa market, The Woollen Cloth Manufactory at Senju has as the following passage, which deserves careful consideration, will show:- "During the year 1883-4 an allotment of Rs. 100 was sanctioned by Government for the purpose of the payment of a commission to the shopkeepers in British territory who might be intrusted with the sale of the tea manufactured by Messrs. It is believed that good siderable reforms will be effected in its or. Darjeeling tea could be laid down at Lhassa, even on the improbable assumption that the Thibetans would impose an import duty equivalent to that levied by the Chinese Government, for 8 annas a pound, while the worst China tea commands a price of Ralifa pound. Whether it would be necessary to make tea exclusively in bricks for the Thibstan trade need not be considered; but there is no doubt that, with a large ten-drinking population on the one side of the the producers and consumers would come to an understanding in the matter. The coarse test sold in the Darjeeling bazaar appears to be un-palatable to the Thibetans, being too bifter, and the impression is that if Darjeeling to were not

It appears that the steamer, after leaving Nagasaki on the 2nd inst., proceeded as far as the Goto Islands, when she met with very boisterous weather. Blinding snowstorins and a high cross sea, which caused the deeply laden vessel to ship heavy seas, induced the captain to run for shelter. He shaped his course for Simons Bay, in the Gotos, where the steamer remained until the 7th, arriving in Shanghai on the 9th. It would seem that the stormy weather continued some time as, accord ing to the report of the steamer De Bay, which arrived in Hongkong on Saturday night, the 6th inst, when she left Nagasaki on the 12th instant, at 6 a.m., the wind was blowing hard from the N.W. quarter with fierce squalls accompanied by snow and hail. This state of the weather continued until she passed Goto Islands, when the weather moderated, with a cloudy sky until the following day. On the afternoon of the 13th the wind was southerly, and the firmament assumed a threatening aspect At midnight it was calm. On the 14th instant, at 4 a.m., the wind shifted, with a fierce squall to N.W., the sky continuing threatening. At 8 a.m. of the same day it blow a strong gale with
